It's LGBTQ+ History Month!

Each February we remember the achievements of the pioneers of the LGBTQ+ movement for equal rights, and celebrate the LGBTQ+ artists, writers, innovators, athletes and activists who have made great contributions to culture, from ancient times to the present day. To mark LGBTQ+ History Month this year, you could check out this recommended reading list, borrow an eBook or audiobook from Brent Libraries (joining info here) or write a review of your favourite book featuring an LGBTQ+ character and post on the book review wall here.

Voices from Alperton Poetry Anthology

You may remember that at the end of last year, Mr Osmany ran a poetry competition on the theme of 'Home'. The winning poems have now been collected in a real published anthology, complete with cover art by ACS students! Mr Osmany would like you to complete this Google Form to share your thoughts on buying a copy of this anthology and future poetry competitions.

Virtual School Library

Each week the National Literacy Trust hosts an author of the week with an audiobook and activities. Click here to listen to Cookie by Konnie Huq for free!

STUDENT AUDIOBOOK REVIEW!

Interview with the Robot

This book is about an interview with a supposed 12 year old girl who was caught shoplifting right next to the owner and guard and starts off by saying "I'm a robot" and shows proof. She tells her story of how at the very beginning when she was first a cube that couldn't speak and can only communicate through text. This book is really enjoyable and I think you should give it a try – I would rate this book five stars' Shuaib Mohamed 8X Click here to listen!
