

Character Description

for Stanley Yelnats

Inside the outline of the main character of Stanley, write words that describe him as a person. That includes things about his personality, feelings and emotions.

Around the outside of the outline, write words to describe what he looks like, what he has done, and about his place in the world.

Compare and contrast with a partner. Did you have similar descriptions or different?