

Relative Pronouns

Who	Relates to people (Subject)	The musician who wrote this song is French.
Whom	Relates to people (Object)	I know the boy whom sits next to you.
Which	Relates to animals and objects	This is the cake which Mary made.
Why	Refers to reason	Do you know the reason why the market is closed today?
When	Refers to time	The day when the concert takes place is Saturday.
Where	Refers to places	This is the house where my son was born.
Whose	Refers to possession	The boy whose phone just rang should stand up.
That	Relates to people, animals and things	12th September is the date that I was born.

lessonsforenglish.com

Having watched the video above, The complete 10 sentences using relative pronouns correctly. Hi-light the relative clause:

Eg

The teacher, who tried really hard to teach online, was finding it very hard and she couldn't wait for the time when they were all back in the classroom.

1. The runner, who wanted to win The Great North Run, was trying to run faster when he approached the finishing line.

2. My Uncle, who is a plasterer, sometimes gets a bad back when he's picking up his heavy tools.

3. The outdoor swimming baths, where I do my swimming lessons, shuts when the weather gets cold.

- The man, who plays the guitar on the busker's night, will sing when he finishes playing the tune.
- The football team, who were playing away from home, jumped for joy when the whistle blew and they'd won the match.
- My friend Gail is making me a birthday cake, when I turn 11, she's bringing the cake to the party which is next Saturday.
- The lady in the ice-cream shop was sad when she told the boy she'd sold out of bubblegum ice-cream, as that comment made the boy cry.
- My dog, who is blue coloured, always gets stroked when my dad takes him out for a walk.
- Spiders, which build webs, usually eat the flies that get caught in them.
- The Chef, who runs the local pub, won an award when he entered his staff into The Best Dining Out Competition In Jarrow.