Sacred Heart Catholic Secondary School - SEND Information Report

- 1a). How does the school identify children with special educational needs? At transition point from primary to secondary school:
- Information gathered annually during primary transition meetings. SEND support plans known as 'SEND profiles' are written at this time and consultation with parents offered at July Transition Event;
- Information received directly from parents during year 6 Open Evening in September/ October and Transition Event in July. Further meetings between parents and school SENDCO or other appropriate members of staff when necessary;
- Transfer of data from primary school as the student moves;

- Meetings between primary SENDCO/Key member of staff and secondary SENDCO.
- Information gathered during 'Transition Day'.

As students of Sacred Heart School:

- Key Stage 3 assessments in core subjects;
- Data used to identify possible SEND need or to inform provision already in place;
- Data captures at strategic points through the year are looked at by senior staff and SEND staff to identify any concerns from the data that may require further investigation;
- Daily monitoring of need through Progress Reports where necessary; in line with school SEND.
- Teachers inform SENDCO of any concerns in line with school SEND referral process;
- SENDCO may investigate further and carry out in-depth assessments of need in response to data or staff concerns;
- If required the school will bring in external professionals to further assess and give recommendations for appropriate provision;
- Assessment of reading ability
- Progress Walks

- Work Scrutiny with particular focus on SEND pupils
- Vulnerable learner meetings

1b). How do we involve parents in planning for those needs?

- Access to emotional health practitioner and counsellor

2a). Whom in school will support my child and how will this be monitored?

- SENDCO will have overall charge of all students on the SEND register and will oversee monitoring and evaluation of progress and provision;
- All teachers at Sacred Heart School have a responsibility for ensuring they deliver quality first teaching whilst also monitoring and evaluating students with SEND in their class. This is the first principle of the New Code of Practice;
- Students who are registered as SEN will, in line with the SEND code of Practice 2014 will have the opportunity for planning and evaluation meetings at parents evenings with parents/carers and students present to oversee their support, monitor progress, evaluate intervention and discuss targets;
- Students with an EHC plan will have their progress and review meetings with the SENDCO each year;

• Quality first teaching is supported by a team of SEND support staff who have differing roles and responsibilities. However, always central to this is breaking down barriers to learning and helping SEND students to move forward and embrace their learning and progress.

2b). How are decisions made about the type and amount of provision a young person will need?

- From talking to parents and the student to understand and establish what they see as the priority;
- Decisions are based on quality evidence the school has collected: both data evidence and that from talking to everyone involved in teaching a student;
- Decisions will also be based on the advice from any other professional involved with assessing and monitoring the student;
- The amount of provision is decided in line with the needs of the student, for example this could be a short term programme of work such as a half term of intervention on a withdrawal basis, or longer term in-class support;
- Effectiveness of any intervention will be monitored throughout with a full evaluation at the end to ascertain progress towards objectives. Pre and Post intervention data will be recorded;
- Intervention will aim to be fluid and able to adapt to individual needs as and when they arise, with the understanding that all students regardless of ability will have areas of strength and areas of weakness; additional support may be required on a short or longer term basis.

3). Curriculum:

- Overall curriculum structure is directed by the Government and the National Curriculum:
- All students will have access to a broad and balanced curriculum and an entitlement to study a full curriculum;
- School discretion can be used, especially in Key Stage 4, where option choices are made to tailor the curriculum to a student's needs (however, we do have to consider the impact on students not taking the subjects promoted by government policy);
- The school fully consults with parents at the time of making Key Stage 4 option choices. We aim to offer a range of subjects to meet students' needs this varies depending on cohort and curriculum changes;

- Differentiation is the responsibility of all teachers. Informed by the data and information on each student, subject teachers plan for and deliver using different styles of teaching and meeting individual needs through a range of strategies;
- Within core subjects, some groups are set within ability bands and this leads to differentiation to the levels students are working at, ensuring that targets are stretching yet attainable.

4). Accessibility:

- Sacred Heart School is fully wheelchair accessible. There is a lift to allow wheel chair users to access the first floor.
- Disabled toilets are available on all floors; changing room and showering facilities are available in several locations.
- An interpreter can be provided with advanced notice of at least one working week, to aid communications with parents whose first language is not English or parents with hearing difficulties to help respond to need.
