Complaints and Appeals Procedure

If a candidate (or his/her parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification he/she is following, Exam Officer encourages him/her to try to resolve this informally in the first instance. - A concern or complaint should be made in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre.

If a complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or his/her parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

- A formal complaint should be submitted – in writing by completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms are available from <https://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/appeals/>
- Completed forms should be returned to Head of Centre/Exams Officer
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 10 calendar days

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The head of centre and SLT will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion
- The findings and conclusion will be provided to the complainant within 10 working weeks

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

- Any appeal must be submitted in writing by again completing a complaints and appeals form
- Forms received will be logged by the centre and acknowledged within 15 calendar days
