

Would you like to be in a new play ?

'STEPHENSON 200'

with CHRIS CONNEL as 'George Stephenson'

AUDITIONS

TUESDAY 6 MAY from 7pm

and

THURSDAY 8 MAY from 7pm

At George Stephenson School - in the school hall

A community play to celebrate the bicentenary (200 years) of George Stephenson's first locomotive 'Blucher' in Killingworth, involving children from GS School and people from the local community.

Professional actor CHRIS CONNEL will play 'George Stephenson'. Chris is best known for The Pitmen Painters (Live Theatre, Broadway, the National Theatre). More about Chris at www.Chrisconnel.co.uk

We have lots of other roles to cast including 'Old Robert Stephenson', 'Mabel Stephenson', 'Jinnie', 'John Stephenson', 'Ralph Dodds', 'Mrs Gibson' and other people in the community of Killingworth and West Moor.

You do not need any experience – just commitment and enthusiasm!

Performances will be at George Stephenson School

Monday 14 – Saturday 19 July

Rehearsals start in May at the school in the evenings, twice a week.

Please only attend auditions if you know you can commit to rehearsals and performances.

There is nothing to prepare for the audition. We will do some improvisation and you will be given a short scene to read aloud with other auditionees.

You can follow the production on twitter: @Stephensonplay
