Prayer and Liturgy

Second Sunday of Advent

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke Luke 3:1-6

It was the fifteenth year of the rule of the Emperor Tiberius; Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip was ruler of the territory of Iturea and Trachonitis; Lysanias was ruler of Abilene, and Annas and Caiaphas were High Priests. At that time the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the desert. So John went throughout the whole territory of the River Jordan, preaching, "Turn away from your sins and be baptized, and God will forgive your sins." As it is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah:

"Someone is shouting in the desert:
'Get the road ready for the Lord;
make a straight path for him to travel!
Every valley must be filled up,
every hill and mountain levelled off.
The winding roads must be made straight,
and the rough paths made smooth.
The whole human race will see God's salvation!'"

God speaks to John while he is in the desert. What does John then go out and do?

John the Baptist goes round to the people and tells them to be prepared for the coming of Jesus. He offers to baptise them so that their sins will be forgiven.

How do you think the people felt when they heard this?

Advent is a time when we think about our actions and try to make sure that we are ready for the coming of Jesus. We think about what we could do better and try to make a change to our lives.

What do you think you could do differently, so that you can try to be ready for Jesus?

CAFOD works with the Church and local organisations all over the world to help people change their lives for the better.

Alberto lives in Peru. He often had to look after his younger brothers and sisters while his mum was out at work, or help them with their homework, even though he was still a child himself. But he became involved with a local homework club, run by an organisation supported by CAFOD. This helped him and his siblings be safe while their mum was working and also meant that Alberto grew more confident. He joined the reading club too and made new friends. He also joined another group where he learnt to be a good leader, how to solve problems and help his local community. All of this support helped Alberto to stay in school and he has now started studying to be an accountant.

Making a change can be really difficult. But Alberto says that nothing is impossible if you set yourself a goal. How does it make you feel to know that there are organisations around the world who help children, young people and grown-ups to change their lives for the better?

How will you make a difference to your own lives and to the lives of others around the world this week as you prepare for the coming of Jesus this Advent?

*Merciful God,
you sent John the Baptist
to prepare the people for the coming of your Son, Jesus.
Help us to get ready as well.
Lead us to make positive changes in our lives and the lives of others around the world.
Amen.*

Dear Parents/Carers,

This year we continue to support our local community by doing a 'Reverse ADVENT calendar', which focuses on giving rather than receiving.

We are asking that families donate non-perishable food and toiletries items that will then be passed to our local food bank to support our local community. Each child will be allocated a day during December to bring in their item. Below is a list of suitable items. At the end of the term the donated food will then be delivered to St Andrew's Community Network and North Liverpool Foodbanks.

Below are some suggestions:

- Tinned vegetables/fruit
- Rice
- Fruit Juice
- Coffee/tea
- Noodles
- Jam
- Toiletries
- Curry and pasta sauce
- Sugar
- Custard
- Cup a soups

Thank you for your continued support!

Mrs Dunn
