Cambridge University Press & Assessment work experience
Application for one week placement between 30 June and 18 July 2025

Your name
Your school
Email address you use at school
Personal email address
Your career teacher's name
Career teacher's email address
Which week(s) does your school allow work experience?

Which placements are you most interested in? Please confirm three and tell us why they appeal to you, giving reasons / examples:

First choice:

Second choice:

Third choice:

Tell us about something you really enjoy, at school or in your free time.

Tell us about something you are really proud of, at school or outside of school.

Do you need any reasonable adjustments to assist you in the interview process and, if your application is successful, during your placement?

Yes / No   If yes, please state what these adjustments are:

We welcome applications from all candidates, regardless of demographic characteristics (age, disability, educational attainment, ethnicity, gender, marital status, neurodiversity, religion, sex, gender identity and sexual identity), cultural, or social background. We believe better outcomes come through diversity of thought, background and approach. We welcome applications from people from all backgrounds and communities, actively seeking to employ people from a wide range of different communities.

Do you have any close family members who work at Cambridge University Press & Assessment?
Yes / No   If so, please provide their name(s):
                  Please confirm their relationship with you:

Having a close family member will not exclude you from applying, but we may prioritise those who do not have close family members at Cambridge University Press & Assessment.

Return this application form to heidi.mulvey@cambridge.org by 7 February 2025