

Dear Parents/ carers,

Hartley Brook is continuing to work in partnership with The Sheffield Parent Carer Forum to improve the school experience for children with additional needs and enhance the relationship between the school and parents.

This is part of the PINS project (Partnerships for Inclusion of Neurodiversity in Schools), but if you have a child who has any special educational need and/or disability (SEND), with or without a diagnosis, we would like to invite you to attend the next parents and carers meeting.

Date of meeting: Friday 17th October 2025

Time of meeting: From 8.30am onwards come along for a cuppa and a chat

Meeting to start at 9am

Where: Hartley Brook Hub

Let's talk about:

- Anxiety
- Talking to our children about their diagnosis / difficulties
- How we get friends / family to understand the needs of our children

And:

- Give feedback about your child's experiences in school.
- Work with school to help enhance SEND provision.
- Discuss school related topics e.g. behaviour, sensory needs...
- Find support.
- Ask questions and discuss concerns.
- Meet other parents.
- Drinks and snacks available.

Please get in touch if I can do anything to help you to access the meeting, or if you have any questions. susan.oshea@sheffieldparentcarerforum.org.uk

I look forward to meeting you.

Kind regards,

Sue O'Shea
