

Basic Structure	Class Information Report	Your Information Report
Title	The Wonderful World of Rivers
Introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heading • Introduce rivers • Talk about how rivers are special • Use a question - But how much do you really know about them? • Encourage reader to read on
Information Section 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heading - Where do Rivers Come from? • Paragraph 1 - rivers have 3 sections. Upper, middle and lower course. • Paragraph 2 - information about the upper course. Source, mountains, small streams that get bigger, waterfalls • Paragraph 3 - information about the middle course. Tributary, meander • Paragraph 4 - information about the lower course. Finally, reaches the sea, mouth
Information Section 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heading - Rivers Around the World • Paragraph 1 - information about the River Nile. Longest river in the world, 6650km long, in Africa, is in many countries. • Paragraph 2 - information about the River Amazon. 2nd longest river in the world but is the widest. 6400km long and 6 miles wide at widest point. Source in the mountains of Peru.
Conclusion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Heading • Choose key points used before to say again • Encourage the reader to find out more 	