

Chantry commemorates Remembrance Day 2020

#weshallrememberthem2020. This year Chantry Middle School marked Remembrance Day as part of their Humanities lessons reflecting upon the meaning and symbolism associated with remembrance using the poem 'In Flanders Fields'. It was wonderful to see the work produced by pupils throughout each year group. We would like to offer our final thanks to every member of our school community for helping to ensure Chantry acknowledges this occasion with the dignity and respect it deserves and for supporting the Royal British Legion by selling, buying or wearing the Remembrance Day Poppy.

Activity 2 - Poem Checklist

In Flanders Fields by John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt down, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

The poppies blow in Flanders fields ✓
The cross represents all of the soldiers that died during war ✓
A lark is a bird and cannot be heard because of the guns ✓
"Quarrel with the foe" means argue with someone ✓
