

Trade Union Facility Time 2018 - 2019

Academies are required to report on time taken by trade union officials on union activities or representing their members.

The Trade Union Regulations came in to force on 1 April 2017 and require academies to publish specified information related to facility time taken by trade union officials where the employer has more than 49 full time employees.

The information has to be reported annually on the campus website and in the annual report.
