Scavenger Hunt

In your year group, tutor group or at home find someoneand write their name in the corresponding box

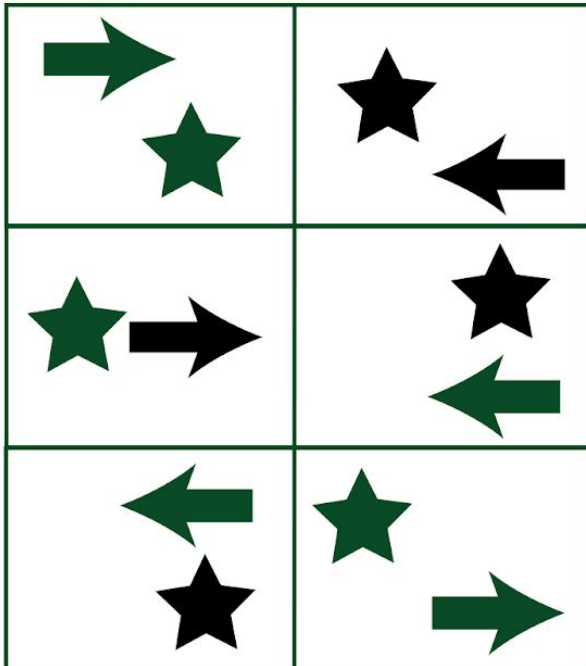

Someone who knows a photographer	Someone who knows an engineer	Someone who knows a Member of Parliament
Someone who's favourite subject is the same as yours	Someone who knows a tyre fitter	Someone who has a family member in the transport industry
Someone who has the same hobby as you	Someone who want to work in the Space industry when they leave school	Someone who knows a computer programmer
Someone who has a family member in the healthcare sector	Someone who knows a builder	Someone who travels to school by the same method as you

Solve these problems and YOU could be a Doctor!

This is an example of a question taken from an aptitude test that all students have to take before they are accepted into Medical or Dentistry School.

This type of question is an Abstract Reasoning question. In the real test you will have 55 of this type of question to answer in 13 minutes. That gives you 14 seconds to answer every one!

Could you be an Accountant?

★ RATEMYAPPRENTICESHIP

Could you be an Air Traffic Controller?

Being a successful Controller isn't so much about your previous work experience, it's about the way you approach problems, handle pressure and adapt to changing situations. Test a range of basic mental skills required by Controllers:
