

Year 8 - The signs of progress

Moving into year 8 you will start to see how Britain began to change with a particular focus on power and religion.

Changes in Industry and developments of technology will also be explored. As well as a study of different underrepresented groups.

You will develop key skills such as describing and explaining; further your second order historical concepts understanding by studying cause, consequence and significance, and analyse sources and interpretations.