November 2021

Dear Parent/Carer and Student

A level Computer Science Learning Companions

To assist students with their studies in Year 12, we are offering A Level Computer Science Learning Companions.

Both booklets comprise of 270 pages of notes covering the whole A Level theory. Supported with examples, images, and diagrams to engage the students, and packed with questions and tasks to test their understanding and application of knowledge. The resource follows the specification and includes tracking sheets, answers and solutions are provided for every question.

We recommend that all students purchase this resource as it has been highly recommended by other colleges and proven to boost exam results.

The total cost for both booklets £6.50. The deadline for payment is Friday 26th November 2021. The booklet will be issued to students as soon as it is printed after this date.

Yours faithfully

P. Temperton
