Dear Parents/Carers and GCSE Music Students

The Bardi Orchestra and Leicester Grammar School have organised a really exciting free event for GCSE Music students to experience the sound of an orchestra. During the concert the orchestra will be playing some of the study pieces that students need to know really well for the course as well as give the students a tour of the development of the Orchestra. Students are encouraged to bring their phones to the concert as there will be some interactive features.

We have managed to secure a free ticket for every student studying GCSE Music if they would like to attend. The concert is on a Sunday afternoon so is completely up to the students if they would like to come along. Members of Music Staff from Brookvale Groby Learning Campus will also be attending and will meet students in the foyer to sit together. The details for the trip are below:
