

Standards expected in English for Year 10 students

Students are expected to read widely and to read texts of different genres and time periods. We encourage our students to speak confidently and partake in class and group discussions. In their written work students must be able to elicit meaning from text, use the text to illustrate their arguments and use literary terminology to strengthen their analysis.