

REDMOOR ACADEMY: History CURRICULUM JOURNEY

A graduate of the Redmoor History curriculum has a deep understanding of the key events that have shaped Britain over the last 1000 years and the fundamental concepts of power, economy and citizenship which inform our cultural values.

The American West: Law and Order

Germany: Life in Nazi Germany 1933-39

Germany: Hitler's Rise to Power 1919-33

11

The American West: Conflict

The American West: Migration and Settlement

Germany: Nazi Control and dictatorship 1933-39

Germany: The Weimar Republic 1918-29

Crime & Punishment 1000-present: Crimes

Crime & Punishment 1000-present: Whitechapel Historic Environment 1870-1900

Early Elizabethan England: Challenges at home and abroad 1569-88

10

Crime & Punishment 1000-present: Law Enforcement

Early Elizabethan England: Queen, Government and Religion 1558-69

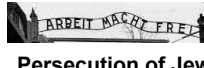

Early Elizabethan England: Elizabethan society in the Age of Exploration

Crime and Punishment 1000-present: Punishments

Key turning points of WW2 e.g. Battle of Britain

Persecution of Jewish people in Nazi Germany and the Holocaust

The End of WW1 and problems faced by Weimar Germany

9

The success of D-Day and aftermath of WW2

The Causes of WW2 and why Germany was so successful

The rise of Hitler and the Nazi Party

World War One

Social & Economic History 1500-modern day: The Transatlantic Slave Trade

Social & Economic History 1500-modern day: The Liberal Reforms

Political History 1500-modern day: Power & Protest

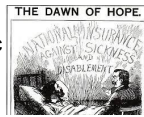

8

Power, Church and the State: Stuart Period

Social & Economic History 1500-modern day: The Industrial Revolution

Political History 1500-modern day: The French Revolution

Political History 1500-modern day: The Civil Rights Movement in the UK & USA

Power through the Middle Ages

Saxons and the Norman Invasion

7

Power, Church and the State: Tudor Period

The life of Medieval Peasants

Historical Skills and Concepts

Our students seek to understand how the past shapes the present