

MEET THE TEACHER

Mr Kent

Hello, my name is Mr Kent and I will be your Year 5 teacher in September. I am a very sporty individual that likes to do lots of exciting activities. I love reading and learning new things so most of the time I will be talking about books, the news or a recent documentary that I have watched.

EDUCATION

I attended Danum School in Doncaster before I went to Leeds Met University where I studied Sports Coaching. I also qualified as a Personal Trainer before setting up my own company working with children and elite GB athletes. After working in America as a sports coach I moved to London and trained as a teacher. I gained my PGCE as well as a Masters in Leadership and Innovation from the University of West London. Three years ago I moved back to Doncaster where I have been teaching in Year 4 at Castle Hills Primary. I never stop learning and currently am working on NPQSL qualification.
