

Impact of the Crawley Green Primary School Curriculum

Writing

By the end of Key Stage 1, all pupils will:

- ★ Be able to write grammatically correct and fully punctuated sentences.
- ★ Use known phonics sounds to segment and write words in a, if not correct, phonetically plausible way.
- ★ Have listened to, learned and retold a variety of both traditional and modern stories.
- ★ Be able to distinguish and recall features and purpose of different text types such as narratives, instructions and letter writing.
- ★ Recount both fictional and real-life experiences.
- ★ Appreciate and take part in the editing and redrafting process.

Developing cultural capital in writing:

- ★ Pupils will listen to a range of stories representing people of different cultures, abilities and families.
- ★ Be exposed to writing of notable past and present authors.
- ★ Understanding the purpose of different text types in the modern world.
