About Us

Pathways 4 All is a parent led charity, providing family centred play and leisure opportunities for disabled children, teens and young adults.

Inspired by her own disabled daughter, Lynn McManus founded the charity in 2010, seeking a safe place for families to meet together. This dream turned to reality with The Tim Lamb Centre opening in 2012, and now over 1000 families from across the North East area have joined us.

Our Mission

To provide specialist play & leisure facilities for disabled children & young adults.

To welcome family members & promote their well-being through social opportunities.

Our Facilities

The Tim Lamb Centre offers

soft play - trampoline hall sensory room - toddler room youth area - IT suite art & craft area - café
