

Quiet Nights

Friday, 8th July 2022
5.15pm - 7pm

Come along to Beamish Museum for our new Quiet Nights – the perfect chance for visitors with neurodiverse conditions (including autism and other sensory processing difficulties) to experience Beamish’s latest exhibits at their own relaxed pace, with a limited number of visitors.

Explore our 1950s welfare hall and Coronation Park out of hours. The event is free for Beamish Unlimited Pass holders and Friends of Beamish members.

During Beamish Quiet Nights:

At Coronation Park and Recreation Ground:

- Test your skills on the football pitch
- Enjoy 1950s-style playground equipment
- Play on the giant draughts board
- Have a go on the miniature golf*
- Visit the 1950s welfare hall (refreshments* and Changing Places available)
- Ride a tram around the 350-acre site
- Wheelchair Accessible Bus available
- Pick up a souvenir to remember your visit by from the Museum Shop at the Entrance

Spaces are limited, carers go free. Pre-booking is essential for everyone.

Please note, this event is centred on a visit to the 1950s welfare hall and Coronation Park and Recreation Ground, other areas of the museum will not be open during the event.

* small additional cost applies
