| Careers Guidance | This course develops skills in communicating ideas and making informed judgements. It is suited to disciplines where communication in both speech and writing is paramount. Progression routes include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The ability to read carefully, assimilate information quickly and exercise judgement wisely makes Law a natural course to take.• The ability to listen, assess, and reach decisions about people are all fostered by the course. Literature is concerned with people and consequently makes the Civil Service a natural option.• Reading, writing, speaking and listening are central to any child's learning. Primary or secondary teaching is a natural and rewarding option. |
