

St Mary's Catholic School

Sixth Form

Every Lessons Counts

Academic and future success starts with excellent attendance and punctuality.

Attend today and achieve tomorrow.

It helps develop your organisational skills, productivity, attention to detail and professionalism.

It develops excellent habits and routines ahead of moving into the workplace in the future.

It allows you for to keep up with your work in your subjects.
You can quickly fall behind in your subjects if you miss a number of lessons.

Why is High Attendance and Punctuality Important?

An excellent punctuality shows that you have respect for your other students, teachers and the school.

It reduces the stress you will experience in the Sixth Form.

It allows you for to keep up with the social side of the Sixth Form and take advantage of the extra-curricular activities offered.

There are 175 non- school days in a year.
This gives you plenty of time to go on visits, holidays and make other appointments.
