“Lest We Forget” - Read about War for November

As we remember those who have lost their lives or have been and continue to be affected by war and conflicts, past and present, a collection of fiction and non-fiction books have been put together to help you learn more about this topic. Now available in the library. Look out for the poppy signs on the books!

Author of the Month for November

Pat Barker was born in Yorkshire, on 8 May 1943. She was a teacher and taught History and Politics until 1982. She began to write in her mid-twenties. Her early novels dealt with the harsh lives of working class women living in the north of England. In 1983, she was named as one of the 20 “Best Young British Novelists”. Her trilogy of novels about the First World War was inspired by her grandfather’s experiences fighting in the trenches in France during WWI. Regeneration, The Eye in the Door and The Ghost Road, are available to borrow in the library.
