

Year 6 Induction Day activities – The Man with the Yellow Face

- Write 3 words or phrases which you think are effective in making the description of the station and photo booth vivid:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

- Find one quote from the opening paragraph which engages the reader, and state the reasons why:

- Which of the following statements are true? Use a highlighter to show your answer.

- The writer says that he thinks from the beginning he was a little scared of the photo booth. He wants the reader to be afraid too.
- The train station is new and very small – it was built in the Stone Age and has a very low ceiling.
- The writer mentions ghosts five times in the first paragraph, which suggests that there might be a ghost in this story.
- The story takes place in York, which is a very old city.
- The photo booth is completely different because it is very modern and small.
- The photo booth is situated in the main part of the train station – next to away the hustle and bustle of trains and passengers.
- When the writer goes near it, the wind picks up as if a train is approaching, but there is no train.
- The wind is cold – this hints at pain and danger.

- Based on your understanding and opinions of the story, complete a book review on the attached form. This will be handed in to your DEAR teacher on the first day back in September.

If you would like to complete any additional bonus activities, see the list below for possible reviews.
