

CALM CORNWALL COMES TO BIRMINGHAM Chloe

SCHOOL REPORT

Southern England's paradise,

Cornwall is in Southern England
Cornwall is a very hot place to go there are: piers, going to the sea life centre, rock climbing, biking, archery and more.
Cornwall is in Southern England, it's a 6 hour drive so bring something to keep you company. But you might be thinking it's a very long drive but it's worth the weather is beautiful, always hot, sometimes it was tropical.

Perranporth is a popular place to go if you love surfing and even if you don't! The white sand will slide between your toes and feel as soft as a tissue. Surfing is popular in Perranporth with its long sands and beach break. The Perranporth Surf Life Saving Club is one of the oldest in the country and hosts an extreme triathlon event every autumn. Did you know that you could surf with dolphins?

Cornwall is popular for its mouth – watering, delicious, spectacular

What to do there:

Cornwall is popular for its mouth –watering, delicious, spectacular pasties there Cornish ice-cream is something to try!
When you go there try the activities such as: body boarding, going to the sea life centre, rock climbing, biking, archery and why not take time to go on the pier and look at the amazing view! If a fun holiday getaway is what your looking for then calm Cornwall is the place to go. It is inexpensive and most camping resorts are spectacular!

Bodyboarding and surfing are one of the mains things in Cornwall

Archery helps you with your aims

The sea is so shiny, so sparkling, so spectacular

The food here is mouth-watering, something to die for!

The air is so fresh, you can smell the chips, the pasties, the ice-cream!

Other English seaside's resorts:

There are other brilliant seaside resorts such as Devon, Blackpool and Skegness.

Devon: The Devonshire cream tea, involving scones or rather Devonshire Splits, jam and clotted cream is considered to have originated in Devon (though claims have also been made for neighbouring counties); in other countries however, such as Australia and New Zealand, it is known as a "Devonshire tea". This is why Devon is so popular

Blackpool: In addition to its sandy beaches, Blackpool's major attractions and landmarks include Blackpool Tower, Blackpool Illuminations, the Pleasure Beach, Blackpool Zoo, Sandcastle Water Park, the Winter Gardens, and the UK's only surviving first-generation tramway.

Skegness: is famous is for its outstanding arcades and its fair

