We are looking for an enthusiastic and well-qualified colleague to join our successful technology department. We are preferably looking for a Teacher of Product Design but because of the specialisms within the department we do have the ability to be flexible and therefore we encourage applications from all teachers within the Technology disciplines. This is a highly valued department and popular with our students. We are an oversubscribed school with a reputation for supporting all of our students. There is a culture of achievement within Technology and high levels of student engagement, leading to excellent outcomes:
