

Topic: How are Sikh teachings on equality and service put into practice today?

Year: 7

What should I already know?

- Sikhism is one of the six 'Big' religions of the world
- Sikhism is one of the religions followed by UK citizens
- Beliefs play a big part in how people live their lives
- Sikhs look to the teachings of the Gurus (- some pupils will have heard of Guru Nanak and know a little about his life)

What will I know by the end of the unit?

I will be able to:

- explain the key beliefs of Sikhism (e.g. about God and the Gurus) and their importance for Sikhs living in Britain today
- explain how Sikhs interpret the Mool Mantar and what it tells them about God and how to live
- give reasons and examples to explain how and why Sikhs put their beliefs into action in different ways
- show how beliefs and teachings guide Sikhs in responding to the challenges of living in Britain today (e.g. a call for equality and service)
- offer an account of the value and impact of the Sikh practice of service and equality in the UK today
- comment on whether the Sikh emphasis on equality and service has anything to say to me, giving justifications for my responses
