

What are we aiming for pupils to achieve? End-of-phase outcomes

Each of the three elements of the teaching and learning approach is important, and pupils should make progress in all of them. Below are the end-of-phase outcomes for each element. Each unit provides learning outcomes specific to each question, leading to these end-of-phase outcomes. Teachers will recognise that this approach balances skills with core knowledge. The outcomes on this page are woven into every aspect of the planning, teaching, learning and assessment of this syllabus. They are the statutory key to the RE syllabus.

Element 3: Making connections Evaluating, reflecting on and connecting the key concepts and questions studied, so that pupils can challenge the ideas studied, and consider how these ideas might challenge their own thinking; and discerning possible connections between the ideas and pupils' own lives and ways of understanding the world, expressing critical responses and personal reflections.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> think, talk and ask questions about whether the ideas they have been studying have something to say to them 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> raise important questions and suggest answers about how far the beliefs and practices studied might make a difference to how pupils think and live make links between some of the beliefs and practices studied and life in the world today, expressing some ideas of their own clearly 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> make connections between the beliefs and practices studied, evaluating and explaining their importance to different people (e.g. believers and atheists) reflect on and articulate lessons people might gain from the beliefs/practices studied, including their own responses, recognising that others may think differently 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> give coherent accounts of the significance and implications of the beliefs and practices studied in the world today evaluate how far the beliefs and practices studied help pupils themselves, and others, to make sense of the world

Assessment guidance: using the outcomes

The outcomes for each age group are the heart of this RE syllabus, and schools using them to plan their RE work will be running a legal curriculum. The assessment guidance of the syllabus is carefully constructed and will be the object of further training opportunities. The detailed lesson-by-lesson investigation plans that the SACREs intend to provide will give exemplary assessment tasks for the units.

Picturing progression in pupils' skills: summary pyramids of steps

These pyramids picture eight steps up in the skills which this syllabus uses and develops. They correspond precisely to the outcomes identified in the aims and outcomes of the syllabus, but do not reflect content with regard to any particular religion. The knowledge to which these skills are applied is found in the unit plans in each case.

Additional examples of the steps to success given here are provided on our SACRE websites for teachers to use.

Steps 1–3 for pupils aged 5–7 Steps 2–5 for pupils aged 7–11 Steps 3–8 for pupils aged 11–14

Gifted 14-year-olds:
Analyse beliefs, ideas and arguments cogently, justifying perspectives.

Some 14-year-olds:
Evaluate critically diverse beliefs, perspectives, sources of wisdom and ways of life.

Most 14-year-olds:
Explain how and why texts and beliefs are used in different ways, reasoning and interpreting for themselves

Many 12–13s:
Explain important beliefs reasonably, describing different interpretations.

Most 11-year-olds:
Explain and give meanings for core texts and beliefs, comparing different ideas.

Most 9-year-olds:
Describe beliefs and concepts, connecting them to texts, suggesting examples and meanings.

Most 7-year-olds:
Identify beliefs, describe them simply, give examples and suggest meanings.

Most 6-year-olds:
Recall, remember, name and talk about simple beliefs, stories and festivals.

Synthesise their research in RE using different disciplines.

Use different disciplines, e.g. philosophy, theology, history and textual study, to explain the impact of religions and beliefs.

Exemplify reasonably the diversity of religious practices in the contemporary world.

Use evidence and reasoning to show how and why beliefs and moral values are put into action today.

Use evidence and examples to show how and why beliefs make a difference to life.

Connect stories, teachings, concepts and texts with how religious people live, celebrate and worship.

Give examples of what difference it makes to belong to and believe in a religion.

Observe, notice and recognise simple aspects of religion in their own communities.

Use varied disciplines of religious study to research ultimate questions comprehensively.

Evaluate arguments personally and critically, synthesising ideas.

Connect coherently accounts of diverse beliefs and evaluate the impacts of beliefs in the contemporary world.

Respond reasonably to the challenges raised by religions and beliefs with coherent views and connections of their own.

Connect their own reflections and views to the religions and beliefs they study, developing insights.

Suggest and link questions and answers, including their own ideas about the differences religion makes to life.

Think, talk and ask questions about religion and belief for themselves.

Begin to find out about and link religions and beliefs.
