Dear parent/carer

At Edward Peake, we continue to prioritise reading and aim to create a strong Reading for Pleasure ethos at our school. Reading for pleasure - the kind of reading children and adults choose to do in their own time, for their own purposes, is crucial. It contributes to our world knowledge, imagination and wellbeing, in addition to developing literacy skills. The will to read influences the skill (and vice versa.) To ensure the concept of all pupils reading for pleasure is a reality, not just a dream, we are conducting research into our pupils', parents' and teachers' reading habits.

We would very much appreciate it if you could complete a short survey, anonymously, at the link below to support us in this research and in improving standards at our school:

We kindly ask that this survey is completed by Wednesday 9 March, after which the findings will be analysed and action plans made in line with these.

Yours faithfully
