

Edward Peake CofE (VC) Middle School Humanities Department: Y6 History Curriculum map

Change Study of changing events over time.	Cause The study of events that lead to an event.	Similarity and difference Study and analysis of the diversity of history.	Significance Process to evaluate what was significant about a place or event.
--	--	---	---

Theme: What contributions have women made to History?
Having understood what previous civilizations, across the globe but also within the UK have provided for modern day it is important for pupils to now understand the contributions made by individuals, in particular women who are often overlooked when reflecting on national and global development.

Term	Topic	Intent	Steps	Concepts	Assessment
Autumn	Elizabethan times: Just Banquets and Fun?	This study looks at the reign of Elizabeth I (one of the first queens of England). It will focus on the positives and negatives of their reign, but also the changes they introduced which helped in one way or the other the development of the country.	Tudors in History Kenilworth visit Elizabethan conflict Elizabethan turning point	Similarity and difference Significance Similarity and difference Cause/ Change	Where do the Tudors fit in history? Were Elizabethan times just Banquets and fun? (part 1) Were Elizabethan times more or less safe than other times in the past? Were Elizabethan times just Banquets and fun? (part 2)
Spring	Who were the Victorians?	The Victorian era is synonymous for social and industrial developments in the U.K and it's Empire. In this study children will gain an understanding of the lives of rich and poor Britons changed, but also the developments which still bare a legacy in todays world.	Victorian inventions Poor Victorians Life in Victorian Britain	Cause/ Change Similarity and difference Significance	How did the invention of the railway change peoples lives? Were the workhouses any better than living as a Victorian poor? What was life like in Victorian Britain?
Summer	Living in WW2	Undeniably one of the world's largest conflicts, this study is focussed more on the impact of the war on the homefront but also in Europe by comparing the experiences of women and children in Britain with those in Europe.	Causes and events of WW1 Living during the war Experiences of women	Cause Similarity and difference Significance	What caused WW1? Was it right to evacuate? How important were the W.A.A.F?