Register for free: NUS-accredited TOTUM Student Discount & Proof of Age ID Platform

We're getting in touch to let you know that schools and colleges up and down the UK are registering for free to allow their students (ages 16 and over) to buy a NUS-accredited TOTUM student discount and proof of age ID membership.

Previously known as NUS extra, TOTUM membership gives students access to hundreds of online and in-store discounts from loads of big brands including ODEON, ASOS and Alton Towers; plus TOTUM members can now grab a PASS-approved proof of age ID which confirms their age – which means they don't need to take their driving licence or passport out with them.

Check out our full list of discounts by visiting our website – <http://www.totum.com/>

Register for free - it will only take 5 minutes to complete.

Registration form: <https://www.cognitofirms.com/OneVoiceDigitalLimited/TOTUM6thFormDetails>

We'll be in touch shortly after and hey presto you're part of the club!

This December

De Montfort University Law School presents...

Santa Laws

Thursday 12th December 10am-1pm

Featuring a festive Law lecture and festive Lunch

“Professor Kevin Bampton explains the strange and peculiar relationship between law and the Festive Season, ranging from how Christmas would never have happened without Law to when Law put an end to Christmas. Questions like “Does Father Christmas Really Exist?” and Who is the Real Father Christmas?” Are explored forensically, but in a light-hearted way. You might never look at Christmas in the same way again.”
