Free for students

The screenshot shows the mobile website for adapt.co.uk. The browser address bar displays 'getadapt.co.uk'. The website header features the 'adapt' logo and a menu icon. Below the header, there are several five-star reviews. The main text reads: 'The revision timetable that does it all for you. For free. Everyone's talking about it.' Below this text are two buttons: 'Download on the App Store' and 'GET IT ON Google Play'. At the bottom, a smartphone displays the 'James' Timetable' app interface, which shows a calendar for 2019 with a grid of dates and a '+ Add event' button.

School leavers can earn and learn on a KPMG Apprenticeship programme

KPMG's Audit Apprenticeship and KPMG360° Digital Software Engineering Degree Apprenticeship are available for students looking to get a head start in their career after leaving school or college.

Starting in autumn 2020, those joining will receive the training, qualifications and experience they need to thrive in the world of business and the tools to support them in their transition into the world of work.

About the programmes

On KPMG's Audit (Higher) Apprenticeship, apprentices will gain a breadth of experience in Audit; including technical skills and a broad commercial understanding of different industry sectors. Those on the programme will also be supported in their study towards professional qualifications and accreditations such as a Level 7 ACA or CA – fully funded by KPMG.

The KPMG360° Digital Software Engineering (Degree) Apprenticeship combines academic study with varied work experience within Software Engineering teams across KPMG. Apprentices will study towards a fully funded BSc (Hons) degree in Digital and Technology Solutions with Queen Mary University of London – giving them the best of both university life and work experience.
