A-LEVEL HISTORY

WHAT WILL I LEARN ON THIS COURSE?

The subject of History is undergoing some exciting changes, meaning you will have the opportunity to study some new topics covering at least 200 years of History. History is a fascinating subject which helps you to make sense of the past and its connections to the present thereby helping to understand the world we live in. The subject also enables you to develop valuable and transferable skills such as literacy, organising and planning research, analysis and evaluation.

HOW WILL I BE ASSESSED?

AS:

- Britain 1930 to 1997 with an enquiry topic on Churchill will be assessed in examination.
- Russia 1894 to 1941 will be assessed in examination

A2:

- Popular Culture and the Witchcraze of the 16th and 17th Centuries.
- Historical enquiry coursework unit with a focus on the Third Reich or the Holocaust.

WHAT COULD I GO ON TO DO AT THE END OF MY COURSE?

Students who study AS/A Level History have access to a wide range of careers and higher education opportunities. By the end of your course, you will have learned how to evaluate and analyse information, how to weigh up evidence and how to communicate complex ideas effectively. These skills are recognised and valued by employers, universities and colleges. History combines well with Maths and Science subjects to create an attractive portfolio or qualifications, enabling a student to move on to a university science based course. Combined with English and a modern foreign language, it would provide a good basis for an arts or language based degree. History AS/A Level provides an excellent foundation for a number of popular careers including Politics, Teaching, Heritage Marketing, Heritage Management, Archaeology, Journalism, Author, Media, Civil Service, and Law Professions.
