GCSE HISTORY

WHAT WILL I STUDY?

You will study topics from three eras, on three timescales and in three geographical contexts:

- The People's Health c1250-Present
- The Norman Conquest 1065-1087
- History around us - A study of Leicester's history during the Cold War.
- The making of America 1789-1900
- Life in Nazi Germany

British history forms a minimum of 40% of the assessed content over the full course.

HOW WILL THIS BE ASSESSED?

All units are assessed through examination.

WHY CHOOSE HISTORY?

History is a great facilitating subject. It enables you to develop key skills such as analysis and evaluation, which are transferable skills used in many jobs such as law, politics, journalism to name a few. It's also a fascinating subject concerned with understanding and explaining the lives of people in the past. By studying the past you will have a better understanding of the world you live in today.
