Free Support for Students Wanting to Study Medicine

My name is Dr Mo, I work as a NHS GP in Coventry. We are trying to help students following the pandemic, considering the lockdowns and disruption to studies that have occurred.

We are organising a FREE A-level revision crammer webinar for Y12/13 students who wish to study Medicine at University. The free A-level revision crammers will be for biology, chemistry, maths and physics.

The sessions are taking place from the week starting Monday 20th February 2023 and two UK doctors will be present to host the event. It will be an excellent opportunity for students to improve their grades for A-levels, in order to apply for medicine.

We do appreciate this free A-level revision crammer may be useful for those not applying for medicine, so for equal opportunities, any other students may also attend.

We would be grateful if you could inform any students who may be interested. There are 2 links below, one is an eventbrite page link and the other is a Link Tree, either can be used to enrol for free.
