

An Inspector Calls PLC

Knowledge/Skills	Red	Amber	Green
I can write an introduction that explains why the topic is important.
I confidently recognise a range of passages from across the play and can tell you where in the text they're from.
I can select 3-4 quotations from the passage to write about.
I can confidently write 4-5 ideas about each of the main characters in the play.
I can confidently write 4-5 ideas about each of the main themes in the play.
I can write about both the passage and the rest of the play in my essay, covering 4-5 key points.
I introduce my ideas using clear topic sentences.
I embed quotations within my sentence, using at least one quotation or example per paragraph.
I show a clear understanding of the play in my writing.
I can comment on and explore the effects of structure.
I can identify, explore and analyse the effects of literary techniques used by Priestley.
I can have a critical discussion about characters and themes, exploring why characters behave in certain ways and what motivates them and why.
I can form original interpretations and offer alternative interpretations.
I explore the effects on the reader.
I evaluate and discuss Priestley's intentions in writing the play (what his purpose was... what he is criticising...)
I can write a conclusion that sums up Priestley's presentation of the key character/theme.
My spelling, punctuation and grammar is secure.

