Dear Aunties,

How's everyone doing back in cold, drizzly England? It's roasting hot here in the Sahara!

Well it's been such a busy week so far here in Cairo while we've been planning our next trip up the River Nile to Luxor. Do you remember that's where I told you we're going to look for King Tutankhamun's grave? Before we can leave, I have to make sure we've got all of our stuff packed ready. Mind you, I'll have to hire dozens of people to carry it all from the boat to the dig site once we get there since it weighs an awful lot!

My favourite donkey's leg is a bit poorly and she's incapable of walking so I'll have to get her some medicine and ask a vet to look at her if I can find one. Hope that's not too expensive or Lord C will moan about the cost!

I reckon we're really onto the right place this time. All the information I've gathered shows Tut's just got to be there. Fingers crossed everyone!

I'll write again when I've got some more news.

Love,
Howard X

Dear

Hi, how are you doing? I know that you've just moved up a year at school. What's your new teacher like?

In your first paragraph you could tell your friend or relative some exciting news...

In your second paragraph you could tell your friend or relative how you're feeling...

In your third paragraph you could tell your friend or relative a secret...

At the end of your letter, don't forget to sign off.

Because you know them well,
say goodbye in a friendly way...

Lots of love

Love from

Take care

Thinking of you

Best wishes

Finally, sign your name.

- 1) Write an informal letter to me, telling me all about our isolation period.
- 2) Then using a ruler label the sections as we did at the start, to show you know the key features of an informal letter.
