

13.1.21 To plan a story Use your work from yesterday to help you draw your own pictures of the key events in the story. Think carefully about which order they happened in. You will use this story map to help you write your own retell of the story.

