

The Christmas Tree

Another festive season! Jolly Christmas! I was glad to get out of that stuffy storage cupboard and get some air. They pulled me downstairs and placed me down. Then the decorations went on me! The big thing was when they flicked the switch, and I lit up! They danced around, then a few weeks later came Christmas Eve. They sung Christmas Carols then they went to bed. During the night, Santa Claus came! He put the presents under me, he ate his cookies, took the carrot and drank his beer. Soon came morning, and the children opened their presents and sounds of delight and happiness rang out around the festive house.
