DEPARTMENT INFORMATION

The English department at Murray Park recently received a 'Good' rating by Ofsted with aims to be 'Outstanding'. We are highly ambitious as a department, with the students' educational experience at the forefront of our minds. Our vision is to teach an inspiring curriculum which nurtures a love of learning and literature that stays with our students outside of their secondary journey.

At present there are five full-time members of staff, two part-time, and one senior leader, as well as the school librarian, who contribute to the English and Literacy team. We all work in the same building which is one of the most recent additions to Murray Park. We work across eight dedicated classrooms, each of which has a smart TV and teaching wall. The stunning library is situated nearby, on the same floor. Various computer rooms are available for booking as and when required, as well as iPads and Laptops available from the library.

As well as the Head of Department, there is also an Assistant Head of Department, and we are keen to develop staff internally, providing opportunities for future development and advancement. We also offer regular CPD opportunities, both within the Derby teaching network as well as CPD from the exam board and popular practitioners such as Alex Quigley.

All students have four lessons of English a week. At KS3 and KS4, and they are taught within ability sets. In KS3, we have a rigorous curriculum where we look at both modern and classic novels as well as engaging thematic units that allow students to engage with a range of different subjects and experiences. We use AQA for GCSE English Language and GCSE English Literature, and all students are prepared for both English GCSEs.

All KS3 students have a weekly library lesson, with KS4 having a library lesson once a fortnight. These structured lessons have a focus on reading for pleasure, 'Accelerated Reader' as well as Reciprocal Reading sessions in small groups.

As a team we are hugely collaborative and supportive, and we have had great success working with Schools Direct, Teach First and ECTs.

"Murray Park School is a great place to work. If you are passionate about making a difference to the lives of young people, this is the place to be"
(Mr Holland - PE)
