

Studying a vocational course - Childcare

What are career prospects like?

There will be 13,407 early years jobs in 2024 (NE)

What could I be?

Nursery Nurse, Teacher, Social Worker or Play Worker.

Transferable skills

What are they?

Skills that can be used in any career, in life, at school and socially.

You'll be surprised at how many transferable skills you already have!

You can gain them through school, your hobbies, work experience etc.

Why are they important?

Employers love them! Most people have at least 3 careers and skills used in one can be transferred to another.

Top transferable skills

- Working well in a team
- Communication
- Time management
- Work ethic
- Integrity
- Problem-solving
- Creativity
- Using your initiative

Leaving school?

Explore your future career

northumberland.ac.uk

Top 5 occupations with the highest growth (NE)

- › Psychologists
- › Insurance Underwriters
- › Speech & Language Therapists
- › Actors, Entertainers & Presenters
- › Financial Institution Managers & Directors

* Mides 2019

In the North East region, these job roles have shown the most growth in people employed.

Priority sectors (NE LEP)

The North East LEP has identified these career sectors as priorities and ones that can offer real growth and a competitive advantage for the region.

- › Advanced Manufacturing
- › Automotive
- › Chemicals & Processing
- › Digital / ICT
- › Energy / Low Carbon
- › Environmental Technology
- › Healthcare
- › Logistics

Top 10 skill shortage vacancies (NE)

- › Quantity Surveyors
- › Mechanical Engineers
- › Metal Machining Setters & Setter-operators
- › Gardeners & Landscape Gardeners
- › Construction & Building Trades Engineering Professionals
- › Scaffolders, Stagers & Riggers
- › Programmers & Software Development Professionals
- › Financial & Accounting Technicians
- › Metal Working Production & Maintenance Fitters

* Mides 2019

In the North East these job roles have been advertised by employers but there are not enough skilled people to fill them.

Studying A-Levels

What could I be?

Doctor, Barrister, Microbiologist, Social Worker, Dentist, Chemical Engineer, IT Consultant, Editor, Occupational Therapist.

Studying a vocational course - Engineering

What are career prospects like?

There will be 53,865 engineering jobs in 2024 (NE)

What could I be?

Electrical Technician, Electrical Fitter, Electrical Engineer, Design Engineer.

