

ART AND DESIGN

National Curriculum Expectations

Purpose of Study

Art, craft and design embody some of the highest forms of human creativity. A high-quality art and design education should engage, inspire and challenge pupils, equipping them with the knowledge and skills to experiment, invent and create their own works of art, craft and design. As pupils progress, they should be able to think critically and develop a more rigorous understanding of art and design. They should also know how art and design both reflect and shape our history, and contribute to the culture, creativity and wealth of our nation.

Aims

The national curriculum for art and design aims to ensure that all pupils:

- produce creative work, exploring their ideas and recording their experiences
- become proficient in drawing, painting, sculpture and other art, craft and design techniques
- evaluate and analyse creative works using the language of art, craft and design
- know about great artists, craft makers and designers, and understand the historical and cultural development of their art forms.

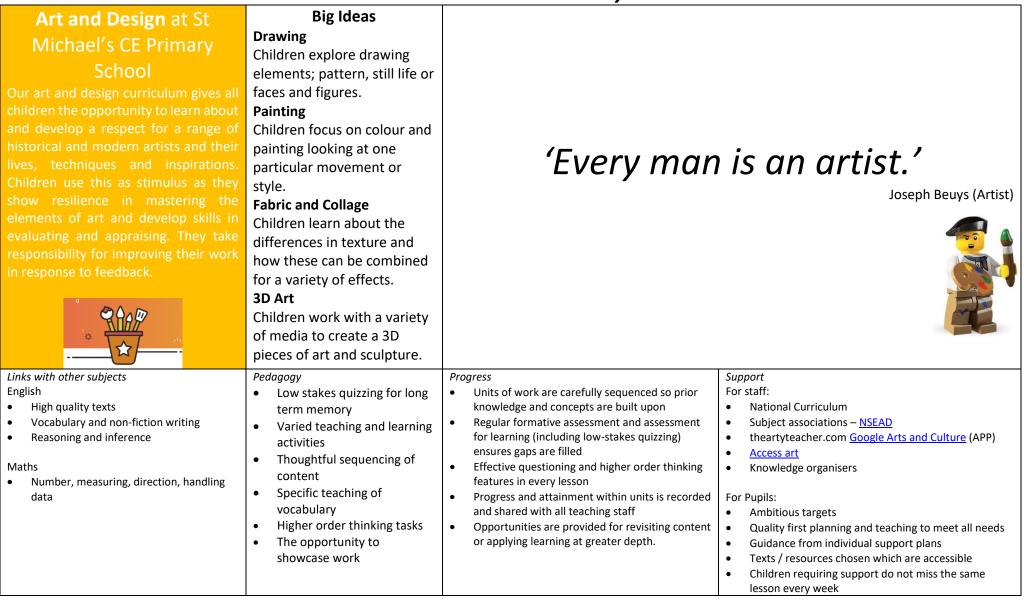

Statutory and Non-Statutory Frameworks:

EYFS	KS1	LKS2	UKS2
Development Matters: To safely use and explore a variety of materials, tools and techniques, experimenting with colour, design, texture, form and function.	 National Curriculum Pupils should be taught: To use a range of materials creatively to design and make products To use drawing, painting and sculpture to develop and share their ideas, experiences and imagination To develop a wide range of art and design techniques in using colour, pattern, texture, line, shape, form and space About the work of a range of artists, crafts makers and designers, describing the differences and similarities between different practices and disciplines, and making links to their own work 	and revisit ideasTo improve their mastery of art	d their observations and use them to review and design techniques, including drawing, ange of materials (for example pencil, charcoal, and designers in history

Promoting SMSC and British Values in Art and Design

Spiritual	Moral	Social	Cultural
 In looking at creative works, pupils have time to reflect on the themes and emotions that are communicated. In learning about different artists and what has inspired them, they are able to learn more about the world around them. Through a unit of work, children are encouraged to reflect first of all on examples of art work from others including what they like, what they don't like and why. Through learning skills they reflect on what works well and what doesn't. Children produce creative pieces to express their own ideas and are encouraged to reflect of a project. 		 Collaborative work in lessons, in children's own sketch books and when contributing to larger shared pieces teaches children the value and the skills of working together. 	 The study of a range of artists allows pupils to describe similarities and differences across different disciplines and cultures.

	Democracy		The Rule of Law		Individual Liberty		Respect		Tolerance of those with different faiths
0	At times, group pieces of art work are undertaken which require conversations and discussion about the equality of opportunity to participate, and how group decisions are made. Children learn how to debate issues and contribute ideas as part of a larger community.	0	Freedom of expression is promoted as children have the opportunity to produce creative work. Respect is encouraged and developed through positive and considered reflection.	0	Children are encouraged to express themselves freely in art. They are encouraged to discuss their reasons for different choices and to have the confidence to follow their own ideas even if they are different to those around them. An atmosphere of accepting that everyone has their own ideas is created so that it is a safe atmosphere for children to experiment in the knowledge that if it doesn't work out that is OK, that we can learn from mistakes.	0	Pupils are encouraged to reflect on artist's work, their own work and each other's' work which promotes respect and tolerance of different work and styles. Pupils are taught how to respond to the work of others, taking into account the impact of their words.	0	Awareness and appreciation of other cultures through learning about artists, and using work from a range of artists as stimuli. Pupils are also taught that different pupils may have different opinions about works of art, or the issues which inspire them.
