

Reception History Curriculum

Autumn	Down in the woods	Percy the Park Keeper & Christmas
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To begin to understand the present, past and future. To understand what a simple timeline looks like and recognise where they are on it. Children will understand that Harvest festivals began a long time ago in the past Children will begin to understand that some stories are new, and some began a very long time ago. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Know the Nativity story and understand it is celebrated to remember a special event that happened in the past Talk about how their own family celebrate Christmas Understand that different people celebrate Christmas differently Understand what happens in a church at Christmas time Understand that different people have different beliefs
Spring	Traditional Tales	Life Cycles and Easter
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that some stories were created a long time ago in the past To know what a windmill is and what used to happen in them 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand the story of Easter To know that Easter began in the past and identify it on a simple timeline Identify where Jerusalem is on a map Understand that some people don't celebrate Easter Recognise how different people celebrate Easter and talk about traditions in families
Summer	Castles	Under the Sea
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understand that castles were built in the past Identify the King and previous monarch Place stories of dragons on a timeline Understand examples heroes and villains 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Know that some people's roles are to research and support sea life.