Year 2 Football

Last Friday our Year 2 Football team had a very exciting trip to Manchester City. They put on a tremendous show in front of parents and City staff.

The team had an incredible start v Hulme Grammar with a hat trick from Jude and a quick exchange from Alex to Ezra for another goal!

On to our next 2 games v Christ Church and Light Oaks which both ended in a draw. They had lots of chances with some sharp passing and defending skills from Finlay and Sammy but but couldn't get the ball in the net. On to Warren Wood where we lost 3-1. We took that on the chin and moved on to St. Francis where we saw a fabulous goal from Alex. Our last game against Greenside was a 1-0 victory for us.

Great goalkeeping from Tayo and Leo, fantastic pressure/skills from Alex, Ezra, Joshua, Jude & Sammy and brilliant defending from Toby and Finlay.

It was a pleasure to take this team. Their behaviour was impeccable and a credit to Norris Bank.
