

Chaplaincy News! September 2025

We are having a Day of Many Colours on Thursday 25th September! This is a wonderful chance to celebrate our diverse school and to pray for peace in the world using the Mission Rosary!

Children come in their own clothes in colours red, green, blue, white or yellow - the colours of the Mission Rosary - OR their national costume if you have it (NO football kits allowed)

Our Faith in Action (FiA) will lead celebration of the Word on that morning!

FiA children will also be leading breaktime Rosary club, organising cake sales for local charities and have asked to try meditation as a form of prayer!

Our school chaplaincy co-ordinators are Mrs Iggulden and Mrs Humphries. Our FiA team are children from year 6.
