Dear Parents,
A fairly quiet week in school!

This Week.
Earthbeat Theatre Group.

Y6 were treated to a workshop involving lots of dance and playing of instruments with a theatre group comprising adults with learning difficulties. Our children were really inspired and thoroughly enjoyed meeting the people and working alongside them, embracing their differences.

The adults who ran the session were very complimentary of our children's attitude and enthusiasm.

Year 5 Athletics.

Isobel Dacey and Austin Hodgson represented the school excellently in their Athletics events this week. Austin will represent the school in further stages after his success. Unfortunately, Isobel just missed out in her event but represented the school brilliantly as always.

Y6 Class Mass.

Y6 attended Mass at St Joseph's on Thursday. Thanks to those who joined us.

Ice Pop Friday.

The children enjoyed their ice pops today. If you would like your child to have one next Friday please send 20p with your child to buy one.

Next Week

Y1 Phonics.

Y1 children will complete their national phonics tests next week. Nothing for them to worry about, they will read individually to Miss Ayton.

Little Joeys.

Our 2year olds will have a visit to Brotton Park on Tuesday 11th. Sounds fun.

Year 4 Cricket

On Thursday next week, the Year 4 cricket team will be playing in the North Yorkshire finals at Knaresborough. If they win this event they will be representing the school at Headingley against schools from the whole of Yorkshire. Good luck everyone.

Car Treasure Hunt.

Still a couple of places left. If you are interested in joining the hunt, please contact the office or Miss Ayton.
