The staff at St Pius have always been friendly, welcoming and understanding. School facilities are excellent and my child really enjoys it here thank you

We enjoy all the fun activities the school organises. My child really enjoys coming to school during these times.

*Everything you do is fantastic, really great school/teachers- thank you
I think the school is giving my child a lot of fantastic progress and looking forward in seeing more next year*

Although my children have barely been 2 months in this school, I can say that they have settled in well and all the encounters we have had with the teachers have been excellent and worthwhile- thank you!

The things that you do with the children are fantastic and gives them great fun and laughter

We love this school and feel that we are involved with the children's learning journey. All the events held for the children are great and help them stay engaged.

There is nothing you need to do more- perfect school!

Communication is 100% - you always keep us well informed and in good time too

School has improved loads

Some great community care from the school

Brilliant school and staff
