

TRINITY CATHOLIC COLLEGE

Part of the Nicholas Postgate Catholic Academy Trust

Homophones

There / Their / They're

Speaking & Listening

there/their/they're

Literacy

there

There is used when making a statement:

There are eleven players on a football team.

Or when writing about place:

Put the shopping down there.

Literacy

their

Their means 'belonging to them':

I went round to their house for tea.

They always take their dog with them on holiday.

Literacy

they're

They're is used instead of 'they are':

They're going to the market on Saturday.

I think they're lovely cats.

Literacy

Put in the right homophone...

1. The teacher told them to leave books on the desk.
2. Billy is always on time.
3. are over 900 students at our school.
4. Ask them if coming tomorrow.
5. Dad was pleased they had done well in exams.
6. We'll go to McDonalds if is time.
7. baking a cake for their Grandma.

8. Can you give me telephone number?
9. My parents won't be coming as both working on Saturday.

Literacy

1. The teacher told them to leave their books on the desk.
2. Billy is always there on time.
There
3. are over 900 students at our school.
4. Ask them if coming tomorrow.
they're
5. Dad was pleased they had done well in their exams.
6. We'll go to McDonalds if is time.
They're there
7. baking a cake for their Grandma.
8. Can you give me their telephone number?
they're
9. My parents won't be coming as both working on Saturday.

Literacy